

Anti-Racism Commitment

I am called to confess the sin of racism, condemn the ideology of white supremacy, and strive for racial justice and peace. To that end, I make the following commitments:

1. As a part of a Reconciling in Christ congregation and a follower of Jesus, I understand Jesus's way is to love our neighbors, which means loving all people; including People of Color and Indigenous Peoples.
2. As a follower of Jesus, I seek to embody the principles of justice and human rights; to protect and commit to preserve the dignity of all and uplift the most vulnerable in our society.
3. I commit to study, prayer, personal reflection and action in my life-long journey to becoming anti-racist.
4. I am fully aware that the struggle to eliminate racism will not end with a mere pledge but calls for an ongoing transformation within myself and the institutions and structures of our society.
5. I believe that every thought and every act of racial prejudice is harmful; if it is my thought or act, then it is harmful to me as well as to others. Therefore, from this day forward I will strive daily to be aware of my racial prejudice and work to eliminate them from my thoughts and actions. I will discourage racial prejudice by others at every opportunity.
